MALONE SOCIETY

ANNUAL REPORT, 1913

THE following plays for 1913 are in type and may, it is hoped, be in the hands of members before the Annual Meeting: Clyomon and Clamydes, 1599; Look about You, 1600; Liberality and Prodigality, 1602; A Larum for London, 1602; Wit of a Woman, 1604. It is also intended to issue a part of the Society's Collections, containing documents edited by Professor Feuillerat, in return for last year's subscription.

The publications for the present year will be selected from the following list: Jack Juggler, n. d.; Thersytes, n. d.; R. Wilmot's Tancred and Gismund, 1591-2; Greene's Friar Bacon and Friar Bungay, 1594; The Cobler's Prophecy, by Robert Wilson, 1594; The Pedler's Prophecy, 1595; Greene's Alphonsus of Arragon, 1599; The Tragedy of Nero, 1607; The Tragedy of Mariam, by E. C., 1613; Gesta Grayorum, pr. 1688, and B.M. MS. Addit. 5956; a part of the Collections, containing dramatic entries from the records of Cambridge Colleges, edited by Professor Moore Smith.

The Society has to regret the deaths of Messrs. Bernard Quaritch and J. H. Wrenn, and of Professor F. Garlanda, of Rome. There have also been two retirements. The vacancies thus caused are being filled up from the Candidate-members, and theirs in turn from the Waiting List, so that the Roll will remain full.

As in 1912, there is a very large balance, due to the fact that the publications of the year have yet to be paid for. There is no question, however, that an adequate surplus will be left over when these payments have been made. In accordance with the suggestion made at the last Annual General Meeting, £100 has been placed on deposit, and the interest on this sum, amounting to £2 6s., will be found on the credit side of the statement of receipts and payments, which is appended.
